

IMMIGRATION & WORKPERMIT

Multiple Entry Business Visa (MEBV)

The MEBV is for Businessman who need to come into and out of Indonesia for business meetings. According to the new Government Regulation No. 26 of 2016, MEBV is valid for 5 years but still cannot be extend, unless for ex-Indonesian Citizen. In your business activity in Indonesia you are given a stay permit for 60 days. At the end of the maximum 60 day stay, you must exit the country. However, you are entitled to re-enter Indonesia again whenever you wish, and without additional payments are required at immigration.

Don't worry about the tax because there will be no income tax will be charged if your stay in Indonesia not more than 180 days per year. However please take note that MEBV does not entitle you to work in Indonesia (subject to Indonesian Manpower Law).

Please also keep in mind that will be an additional fee charged directly by Indonesian Embassy at the country where the visa will be picked up. This charge varies from place to place, but it is usually around USD 100.

Required Documents:

1. Original Passport which have validation for more than 18 (eighteen) months beyond the intended length of stay;
2. Reference Letter from sponsorship company;
3. Invitation Letter from the counterpart in Indonesia mentioning the purpose of visit;
4. Copy of confirmed round trip flight itinerary/electronic ticket;
5. Visa application altogether with one recent passport size photograph attached to the second page of the application.

*****